MARYLAND SOCCER 1969

1968 NCAA CO-CHAMPIONS

OUTLOOK 1969

The University of Maryland's soccer team is pointing to removing the "co" from the national championship trophy that they won for the first time in the NCAA tournament of a year ago. That team was the only one in major college soccer to be undefeated as they posted a 14-0-1 record, with the tie coming in the national finals. Naturally, a standard like that will be hard to top, but if any team could do better and put national titles back to back the 1969 edition of the Terrapins could be the one to do it.

Before a third national title can be realized (the 1947 team was a co-champion with Springfield for Maryland's first national flag in only its second year of varsity soccer) the Terrapins must win their 17th consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference title and do well against the other opponents on their eleven game schedule.

The major aims of the team for 1969 include the NCAA and ACC titles, but they also lean to a victory over Navy. "It's the biggest single game on our schedule each year," commented Coach Doyle Royal, "and a definite plus for the winner when it comes time to seed the teams for the NCAA tourney. Those three goals are uppermost in our minds before the season begins, the ACC, Navy, and the NCAA, but most of all the NCAA."

Offensively the team appears to show improvement on what was already a powerful unit. High scorer Rocco Morelli (20 goals) and 1967's most active foot, Larry Ruhs, who led the team in assists last fall both return for their final years. Jerry Chareczko returns after scoring 12 goals as a junior. Rasim Tugberk and Nicholas Skirka are expected to boost a very strong offensive unit. Maryland will have its greatest scoring combination ever in Morelli and Tugberk.

The offense will be improved and more experienced, but the defense will have to go some to improve upon the 1968 unit that led Maryland to a national championship. With first team All-Americans gone at center halfback and from the goal, great gaps will have to be filled. Gone from the defense that allowed only 15 goals in as many games are two of the men that were mainly responsible for that feat. Three of the six defenders will return including both fullbacks, Paul Stiehl and Les Bernard, and the sensational freshman from Istanbul, right halfback Melih Sensoy, an All-ACC choice for 1968.

Despite the large number of returnees the lineup can not be determined until the season opens for there will be strong competition at all positions. There will be adjustments made and the starters for the opening game will not be known until just before it begins.

The defense will be weaker due to the graduation of two of the greatest defensemen ever and the offense will be improved greatly by the experience of the returnees and the arrival of several new faces. After adding offensive and defensive strengths the Terrapins figure to field one of their strongest teams ever. The prospect looms for another undefeated season.

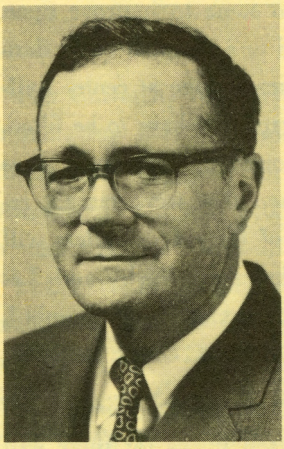
COACHING STAFF



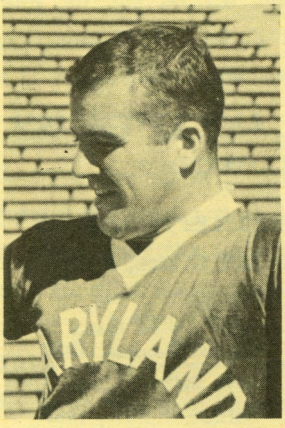
Doyle Royal

DOYLE ROYAL is entering his 24th season as head soccer coach at the University of Maryland. He started soccer on a varsity level in 1946 after returning from the war. Since that time he has compiled a record of 180 wins, 39 defeats, and 12 ties, a truly remarkable feat.

He graduated from Roosevelt HS in Washington, D.C. and came to College Park as an undergrad in 1939 with aid to play tennis. That same year he was on the Junior Davis Cup Team. At Roosevelt he won letters in four sports and captained the basketball and tennis teams. He won three tennis letters and one soccer monogram at Maryland.

He began playing soccer while in the fourth grade and by age 15 was playing in the Washington Unlimited Soccer League. He was the youngest ever to play in that league. Royal continued to play amateur unlimited ball until 1941 when he played inside right on the Maryland team which went undefeated. He got his diploma in 1942, and went off to war.

During the war he took part in the invasion of France, earned a silver star for valor, a Purple Heart, and three campaign ribbons. He retired from the Army Reserve following the summer of 1968 as a Lt. Colonel.



Ron Hoch

RON HOCH will be the head assistant coach to Doyle Royal this year. His main duties will lie in the area of training and physical conditioning. He was a member of the 1965 All-South team and a great center halfback on a team that went 6-2, allowing only eight goals.

Assistants: Giancarlo Brandoni, Mario Jelencovich, and Peter Lowry are expected to help with the team this year. All were stars on the national titlists of a year ago. Brandoni and Jelencovich are two-time All-Americans.

"GREATEST OF SEASONS"

(1968 IN REVIEW)

MARYLAND'S 1968 season was truly the greatest in its glorious history. Maryland was the national co-champion with Michigan State, won their 16th consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference title, and finished the year as the only undefeated soccer team in major college competition.

They extended their regular season winning streak to 13 games, recorded their 63rd conference win and scored their 300th ACC goal, won their 180th varsity game and scored the 850th varsity goal. The Royalmen extended their own statistics by being ranked in the top ten for 9 of the past 11 years while gaining their second championship. The team allowed 15 goals, an average of one or less per game for the seventh time in the last thirteen years.

Maryland made the NCAA finals for the third time in the ten years of the tourney, raising their NCAA record to 9-7-1. Two Terrapins were selected on the All-American first team, something that hasn't happened to Maryland soccer players since the modern selection system began in 1941. That raised the total of All-Americans to 37 Marylanders who have earned 49 nominations.

From the left side, Frank Schoon shot home a goal that went untouched into the Navy net to gain an overtime win against the Middies, the first triumph over that team since 1962.

The 1968 team had a defense that did not allow then undefeated North Carolina a shot on the goal for three quarters of the game and allowed only three shots in the fourth quarter to win the game that gave Maryland the ACC crown.

The South's number one team drew a bye in the first round of the NCAA tourney and faced the defending national co-champion St. Louis in a second round game before 8500 spectators in College Park. Maryland dominated play and sent the Billikens home with a 3-1 defeat. Eight days later the Terrapins knocked off the Hartwick Warriors and advanced to the national semi-finals in Atlanta, Georgia to play San Jose State.

The western team quickly opened a 2-0 lead, but then Rocco Morelli unleashed a scoring feat that had been unequaled in NCAA play. Rocco drove home two shots to tie the score by halftime and put in another to gain a 3-3 tie at the end of regulation play. The teams entered overtime, when one score would end the game. With 2:14 gone in the first overtime period Morelli capped a four goal day and vaulted Maryland into the finals of the soccer classic. Counting his only shot of the Hartwick game and the four goals in the semi-finals, Morelli had scored five goals on five consecutive shots, an NCAA mark that may never be equaled.

Maryland never trailed in the finals but saw only a 2-2 tie after regulation play on the strength of goals by Alvaro Bitencourt and Jerry Chareczko. Two overtime periods went by and the deadlock remained with Maryland and the Spartans being declared 1968 NCAA Soccer Co-Champions.

First Team

A few years ago when Coach Doyle Royal was at the finals of the national junior college soccer championships in New York, two players introduced themselves to him and said that they wanted to come to Maryland. Their team had not reached the finals that year so they were seated in the grandstand. Those two, Mario Jelencovich and Giancarlo Brandoni, came to Maryland and got their chance to be in the finals, for last year these two defenders helped the Terrapins to a national championship that was their first since the NCAA tournament began in 1959. These stalwarts headed a brilliant defense that recorded four consecutive shutouts late in the season while the team was in its drive for the national crown. Following the 1968 title game in Atlanta Jelencovich was named as the Outstanding Defensive Player of the NCAA tournament. As a final honor, after an outstanding season, Jelencovich was chosen in the goal and Brandoni at center halfback on the All-America first team.
